and lead us in a craft. Welcome back to the library, Erica!

You're invited to our BIRTHDAY BASH!

We are partnering with our local Open Door to collect Birthday Bag supplies for kids in our community and we need your help!

Items you can donate: cake tin pan, box of cake mix, tub of frosting, candles, or a small gift ($10-$15 or less) any age child or teen.

Bring your items to the library anytime during the Summer Reading Program and join us on July 29th for a Birthday Party!

Details coming soon.

Puzzle Pandemonium Family Event

Bring the family to the Queen City Room on June 26 at 5:30pm for a fun night of puzzles.

Calling all Parents & Guardians!

We need your help, as we update all library card registration for minors (anyone 17 and younger).

Please come to the library and sign our new Minor Application form (forms available June 5).

Educational Outreach Grant

We were recognized as a recipient of an Education Outreach Grant offered through the Pettis County Community Partnership. We were awarded over $900 to purchase outdoor games for our Summer Reading Kick-off Party! These materials will not only be used for our Summer Reading Program, but for various youth and family events held at the library. Thank you Pettis County Community Partnership for this opportunity and for supporting our mission to bring together individuals, information and ideas!
